WILLIAMS & WILLIAMS

The team sold a Malibu beach-front property for $110 million, the highest recorded sale ever in L.A. County. Other 2018 highlights included the Stanley House collaboration with Lenny Kravitz that sold for $33 million. Notes Branden Williams: "If you buy anything good the value is usually good, but the question is what's good? That's why you need experts like us, to find you the diamond in the rough. We're so blessed here because L.A. is probably the best city to live in. No other city has what we have — beaches, mountains, desert, perfect weather — which explains why all the industries are moving here."
